Dear Mr. Guiang:

On behalf of the AGA National Executive Committee and the National Nominating Committee, I am pleased to extend our warm congratulations to you on your new position as AGA's Regional Vice President-Elect for the California region. Now that the National Bylaws and Procedures Committee has officially certified the 2008-2011 slate, you can prepare to take office. As you know, this is a three-year term. You will serve as RVP-Elect until June 30, 2009 and as RVP starting July 1, 2009 then the following year, you will serve as Immediate Past RVP. As you know, your region falls under Section III and your Senior Vice President for Regional Services is Robert P. Bond, CGFM.

Alexander, congratulations again. The Association is very proud of its leaders and is fortunate to have you joining us in this role so crucial to our success. Your service is genuinely appreciated. Feel free to contact me at rickfair@comcast.net if I can help you serve the chapters in your region.

Sincerely,

Richard Fair, CGFM, CPA
AGA Immediate Past National President
